FURTHER EDUCATION AND CONSULTING WITH REFA

FROM OUR BASE IN GERMANY OR THROUGH OUR LOCAL PARTNERS

When should you cooperate with REFA internationally?

When proven methods and one common professional language matter!

Do you want to improve the competitiveness of your company on the world market? Do you want to align your company internationally according to proven REFA standards? Do you want to enhance your personal chances on the international labour market? Then we are your partner!

For over 30 years REFA has transferred know-how in work design, industrial organisation and company development worldwide. Our international network of experts, companies, cooperation partners and trainers ensures that we are your all-in-one provider of know-how: through seminars, practice-oriented consulting and experts with international experience..

METHODS AND LANGUAGE – ALL-IN-ONE

Successful companies have complete control over working places and work flow as well as over the entire business process. This is not always an easy task, especially when processes need to be coordinated and harmonized in different parts of the world.

Thanks to our methods and training standards which are internationally consistent, seminar participants and consulting customers from REFA acquire the same know-how worldwide. They master the same professional language in terms of work design, industrial organisation and company development. Our longstanding customers unanimously confirm that this basis provides them with a solid competitive advantage.

REFA NETWORK – GLOBAL OPTIONS FOR YOU

You can benefit from our training- and consulting offer through our local REFA organisations and cooperation partners which can be found in: Argentina, Austria, Belarus, Bulgaria, Egypt, Hungary, Italy, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovenia, Switzerland, Tunisia, Turkey, Ukraine and Uruguay.

The team of REFA-International is ready to conduct projects in the above countries or in any other country of your choice. Our local networks guarantee that country-specific conditions are taken into account and will be matched to your company's requirements if necessary.

Which services of REFA can you use worldwide?

Basically all services which are available in Germany.

GLOBAL REFA SERVICES – KEYWORDS OF OUR PERFORMANCE SPECTRUM

The following topics belong to our core competence in further training and consulting – our work with multinational companies has confirmed their importance:

- process analyses and process optimisation
- time studies
- work evaluation, management of working time and remuneration systems
- planning production- and order management
- optimising resource management
- set-up of a quality management system
- coaching of individuals/groups at their work place after attending a training measure

Your topic is not included? Please contact us anyway. We dispose of a large network of professional experts in Germany and internationally.

REFA FURTHER EDUCATION & TRAINING – À LA CARTE AND TAILOR-MADE

REFA seminars have the same standard worldwide. The actual way of implementation depends on where and for whom the training takes place as well as on the local social and economic conditions.

Our basic training offer includes know-how which extends from production and logistics to didactics. On these topics REFA also offers short- or compact seminars of 1 to 3 days' duration.

Our offer to carry out in-house training measures has proven to be particularly successful for international companies. We come to you wherever you are located. Seminar contents and – schedule are adapted to your requirements. To complement our numerous standard seminars, we also develop tailor-made training or seminar modules which are exclusively adapted to your needs.

REFA CONSULTING – TO TOP IT ALL OFF OR AS AN INDEPENDENT PROJECT

To us international consulting means to come to the point, straight forward and practice-oriented and to achieve results. What can we do for you?

- Do you want to ensure that your staff can practically apply its newly acquired know-how? Then try our REFA on-site coaching. For decades this complementing measure has been effective, especially with multinational companies.
- Do you want to increase the harmony within your international group in matters of work design, operational organisation and company development? Whether for short or comprehensive long-term projects, your REFA consultants will tackle the task - we are ready to take on tasks worldwide.

Our goal for all consulting tasks is to reach agreed-on targets in a timely manner with measurable results – and not to write books.
